Band Organized; Directed By Cox

University Band to Play at Games; McNaughtin Assists Director.

The Omaha University band met and organized for its second year in school life recently. The band, under the baton of Henry G. Cox, music instructor at the University, played at the football pep meeting held in the gymnasium a short time ago.

According to Pat McNaughtin, student director and organizer of the band, a great deal of promise was shown by the group at its recent concert, although still more members are needed in certain sections.

SEEK SUPPORT OF PAN-HEL MEMBERS

L. Leigh Speaks To Pan-Hel Council On Homecoming.

"We want the support of the Greek organizations in putting Homecoming over. We want everyone out, to make it a big event," stated Lewis Leigh, junior Student Council representative, before a meeting of the Pan-Hel council Monday, September 30.

Leigh asked each of the Greek organizations present at the meeting to prepare a float for the Homecoming parade.

Kenneth Hargrove, president of Pan-Hel, announced that it has been arranged with Mr. L. D. Crenshaw, bursar, to reserve a section for students at the football games.

Organization of the pep squads was left in the hands of the committee chosen last spring at the close of school. The members of the committee are: Don Ryan, Dorothy Anderson, and Kenneth Hargrove. It was suggested that something be done to arouse the interest of the men on the campus in cheer-leading. This matter was also referred to the committee.

It was proposed that a date for the opening of the formal season be set, but a controversy over the provisions of the Pan-Hel constitution and precedents established as to this date, delayed any action toward setting the date until the matter could be discussed with Dean Rene H. Stevens, who was not present at the meeting.

KENNETH TURNER

The University of Omaha Student Council is headed for the first time by a Barb. Kenneth Turner, senior class representative, is the first non-fraternity man to serve as president of the Council.

Last spring Turner was chosen the "most popular man" on the University campus by the coed voters at the Pan-Hel dance. He competed with six fraternity men for the honor.

Turner is playing halfback on the Cardinal football team this year. He will graduate in June.

Board Committee To Award Prizes

Committees for the selection of journalism prize-winners and for the choosing of prizes were announced at a meeting of the University Board of Publications held Monday afternoon.

Mr. Robert Lasch, state news editor of the World-Herald, Mr. Fred Hunter, managing editor for the Bee-News, and Dr. Benjamin Boyce, head of the department of English in the university, were named to the judging committee which will choose the winners in the competition for the semester's best news story, feature story, and editorial submitted during each of the two semesters in the last school year.

Dr. A. Dayle Wallace, professor of English, Fay Lane, and John Moucka will select the prizes. Three awards for each semester of last year will be made.

Dr. Earl T. Sullinger, head of the department of sociology, was re-elected a member of the Omaha City Board of Recreation by the City Council, Saturday, September 26th.

PLAN PERMANENT PEP ORGANIZATION

Anderson Presides; To Appoint Executive Council.

Fifty women, representing the Greek sororities and the Barbs, met Tuesday, October 1, to formulate plans for the organization of a women's permanent pep group. Dorothy Anderson, a member of the Pan-Hel pep squad committee, presided over the meeting.

An executive council composed of a representative from each sorority and a Barb, was selected. The representatives selected are: Betty Lou Stringer, Sigma Chi Omicron; Elizabeth Bostwick, Gamma Sigma Omicron; Ellen Hartman, Phi Delta Psi; Ardith Hudson, Kappa Psi Delta; Ruth Grenville, Barbs; and Minette Meyers, Pi Omega Pi. As yet a woman from Alpha Gamma Chi has not been selected.

Diamond Is Sponsor

The executive council will meet with Dorothy Anderson and Miss Ruth Diamond, who will sponsor the organization, today at 10 o'clock. They will make plans for drawing up a constitution, select an Indian name for the group and decide by what criteria the membership of the group will be limited. Organization of the group will be completed before the Homecoming game.

Men To Organize

A similar plan is being worked out by Don Ryan and Kenneth Hargrove for organizing a men's pep squad. It has been decided that their membership will be limited for the present to four from each of the men's organizations. This group will devote its time to perfecting the University's yells and the cheer-leading.

Dayton Heckman Appointed Coach Of Debate Squad

Professor Dayton E. Heckman, professor of political science, will serve this year as debate coach. Dr. Benjamin Boyce, head of the English department, has hitherto served as coach.

Cardinals Play Wayne Today

First N. I. A. A. Conference
Game; It Will Break Five Years' Tie Jinx.

"Omaha will beat Wayne by a large margin tonight," Coach Sed Hartman predicted today. "For the past five years we have tied with Wayne. Rain has ruined Omaha's chances the last three years."

The game will be the feature of Wayne's homecoming festival.

For five long years Omaha has journeyed to Wayne and vice versa, but to no end. Each game has resulted in a tie, which is very discouraging, and Omaha has been handicapped by rain on several occasions, preventing them from earning a well-deserved victory.

However, this year is going to be different. Omaha is scheduled to play Wayne tonight, and is the heavy favorite.

Omaha has decisive wins over Morningside and Ottawa and looks good to cop the N. I. A. A. conference title.

The Cards won from Kansas 29 to 0 last week and Wayne lost to South Dakota Wesleyan.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

If "today is yesterday's pupil" as Benjamin Franklin once observed, then the University of Omaha Student Council should profit by the experiences of last year's Council, which was the target of much unfavorable criticism on the part of the Student body and the Gateway. In view of the unsatisfactory manner in which the duties of the Council were performed last year, the present Council will have a difficult time convincing the students that the Council is both worthy and capable of the leadership which it assumes in the student activities on the university campus.

The president of the Council is a Barb, the first ever to hold this position. We now may look for some decisive steps being taken toward eliminating some of the Greek and Barb differences that have heretofore disrupted any action taken by the Council and prohibited any degree of unity in exercising the powers of the Council.

After the election today, the Council will attack its first big problem of the semester, the Homecoming celebration. The Gateway takes this opportunity to offer its co-operation to the Student Council and to wish Kenneth Turner a successful year as president of the Council. May he be unharassed by the petty rivalry and discord that have beset former presidents of the Student Council and may he head this organization judiciously and impersonally.

"Nothing is easier than fault-finding; no talent, no self-denial, no character are required to set up in the grumbling business."
—Robert West.

YE EDITOR'S LAMENT

Getting out the paper is no picnic.
If we print jokes, folks say we are silly.
If we don't, they say we are too serious.
If we publish original matter, they say we lack variety.
If we publish things from other papers, we are too lazy to write.
If we are out rustling news, we are not attending business in our own department.
If we don't print contributions, we don't show appreciation.
If we do print them, the paper is filled with junk.
Like as not some fellow will say we swiped this from another.
And so we did.—The Texas Outlook.

Shipwrecked Professor: "In my country, ignorant fools, I'm regarded as a man of letters."

Cannibal King: "Good. We'll make you into alphabet soup."

Thru The Keyhole

We have heard that there is no need for a colyum as long as we have Kozak on the campus I am glad to report that certain Sig Chi pledges have more vim and vigor than their actives.... What with election coming on, it is no time to for a certain sorority to go uptown—The popular notion that that members of The Gateway staff are a bunch of bums was effectively refuted this week.... Randolph Claassen, former Editor, has been selected as one of the official escorts for the Ak-Sar-Ben coronation princesses.... Many Omahans attended the Nebraska-Chicago game last week and were, as usual, very subdued Monday.... Lehmer is still strong with the Pi O's.... Tsk tsk.... Ask what the Pan-Hel they're doing, beefing about the cheerleaders; what they need is a little co-operation from the students.... Theta Picnic Sunday.... Tough on the Profs Monday.... One blond Gamma what hangs around with the Pi O's is very much perturbed by the presence of the alumni around the school.... A few choice middle names for the colyum—James Oglethorpe James, Francis McPherson Hesler, John Jacob Moucka, Francis Cusick Nelson, Louis Ruthven Leigh.... Wonder what tradition the Sig Chi's have that is making itself so much of annoyance to the other Greek women???

It seems that this Johnson-Thornton deal is really getting serious.... No one on the campus seems to know why they are calling Leigh "Daddy" we do, and will supply the information to any interested.... Phil Rodgers seems to think that it is worth the chips to go all the way to C. B. for a date.... By the way, Phil, that river gets awful cold in the winter.... We often wonder if Tommy really has something or is it just the ride home.... Kate Davis and Spangler (so they tell me) are really fond of the landscape out at Peony Park.... How come, Frank?... One minute Anderson and Moucka are having a royal battle and the next they are huggin' each other.... I guess that really must be love, or is it just the fact that absence makes the heart grow fonder?... And then there's poor Mary Alice, who goes nuts over an old Romeo who won't give her a tumble; just another case of live and learn or as some of them say, "learn to learn".... Is Elinor Johnson going back to her partner of two years ago, or is it a case of first come, first served?... Maybe she still likes the red hair.... Too bad Chris didn't hear this so she could be in the race with K. Davis in her fight for a boy friend.... A certain friend of ours wants to know who the Glee Club Davis was with the other nite.... Does anyone know that the new name for Meyers is now Minute?

It seems that Knipprath had quite a time in Lincoln last week.... In fact, we heard that he and L. T. ran in to some trouble and weren't able to return to Omaha until Sunday.... How is Stinson?... We are wondering what Pearey is going to do up at Wayne tonight (after the game).... You know, Fair is one of the Profs up there.... We of the old Keyhole Staff really think that this "Bunny" dame is really O. K.... I guess she must have forgotten that she pledged Sig Chi and not Pi O.... We are definitely sure that "Beefy" Maxwell will have a good time tonight, as we heard that his heart throb is up there.... Up where? Wayne, you dummy, are you goin'?... We wonder if the Phi Sigs are still a Frat or if they are changing into a Chamber of Commerce.... So a certain party is making a trip to Ames Saturday.... Hehheh, guess the Theta pledge means nothing after all.... Since Carl has been back in town mending his fences.

We have observed that a certain gal by the name of Mills has a group of ardent admirers in the Fresh pigskin club.... And then there's that winsome Miss from Kearney by the name of Nelson who has pushed out Grau's old flame.... Our friend, Judge Landis, was complimented by the Pater for getting a clean room in a decent neighborhood for a change (must be the moral tone of our Institution).

ON THE MAGAZINE RACK

By LLOYD L. LEE

"Ethiopia"—By Robert Nathan
"Wisdom"—By Paul Hoffman

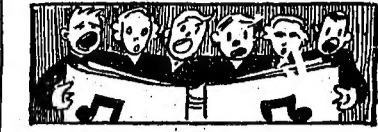

Those who would relish a bit of poetry between classes might look at Robert Nathan's "Ethiopia" and Paul Hoffman's "Wisdom." The former by the young eminent Hebrew author depicts Rome again greedily seeking a colonial empire.

"The vultures gather with a greedy sound, Alert and hungry on the empty bough."
Poets are admonished to awake and sing anew the songs of freedom. The sonnet is typically English in construction.

The latter poem is a wonderful analogy of wisdom in the form of a beautiful word-picture of autumn, falling leaves, and barn fires.

You, Me, the Gatepost
By FRAN NELSON

We hear the story of a small group of young men on the campus who allowed their sentiments to run away with their better judgment the other night. It seems that they were possessed with the over-powering desire to serenade a group of very nice young ladies on the campus. With much gusto they sang on the back porch, on the front porch, under the windows, and in the yard. Can you imagine it? They received a cold shoulder, and so close to election time, too. In the past, to serenade a sorority was the highest honor a group of fraternity men could pay them. It still is on other campuses, but perhaps Omaha U. with its advanced technic and modern outlook has grown beyond this. Or perhaps it was the fault of the serenaders; or could it be the sorority that was at fault? I wouldn't know.

The band, such as it is, is very anxious to take in an out of town football game, but two bucks transportation is a lot of money to go to Wayne. Musicians are notably poor anyway. Perhaps some of the better brains in the school might think of some way for the band to raise money to take in some of the future contests if not this, next year. The U. of Nebr. sends its band out of town by means of the receipts of the yearly Freshman-Varsity game. That's just an idea. We all realize the value of a band at a football game, but some people are inclined to overlook the fact that a band can be good without being large.

The tale is getting around that a campus organization was awfully tough on its pledges. The meanies actually dictated the details of the pledge dance to their pledges last year, and this was the last straw. It seems that one poor pledge couldn't even live his own life.

Considering pledges, I would say that some of them aren't capable of living their own lives. And on the other hand it sometimes seems apparent that an active is so busy living a pledge's life that he makes a mess of his own.

Two well known sororities are going to do some throat cutting or hair pulling or whatever it is that sororities do. Maybe I'm wrong, but despite of outside appearances there is still a strained feeling because of recent rushing activities. If one is at all interested in school politics it might be worth his time to watch activities in the Pan-Hel, and the girls' pep club for the next week or so. One of the larger sororities is in favor of proportional representation and as this goes to press a rather strenuous opposition is planned. One of the interesting angles to the whole situation is the assurance of two of these scrapping sororities that they intend to combine forces in the coming election.

While speaking of Greek grief it is well to mention that a certain frat, and some of their "sisters under the skin" are apt to have a conflict over the dates of their pledge dances; however, no real trouble is anticipated as each is unaware of the other's intentions.

Five Years Ago

1. The Omaha Cardinals tied Wayne in football, starting an unbroken precedent.
2. The University conservatory of music moved to new quarters in the men's faculty building, allowing the commerce department to move into Joslyn hall and thereby centering all departments of the University around the campus.
3. Students were allowed to cut ten per cent of their classes without affecting their grades.
4. Miss Nell Ward and Mrs. Leslie Johnson were the proud possessors of new Ford cars, while Professor Witman was sporting a new Chevrolet.
5. Keene Abbot, dramatic critic for the World-Herald, read one of his short stories before a student assembly.

Warnings

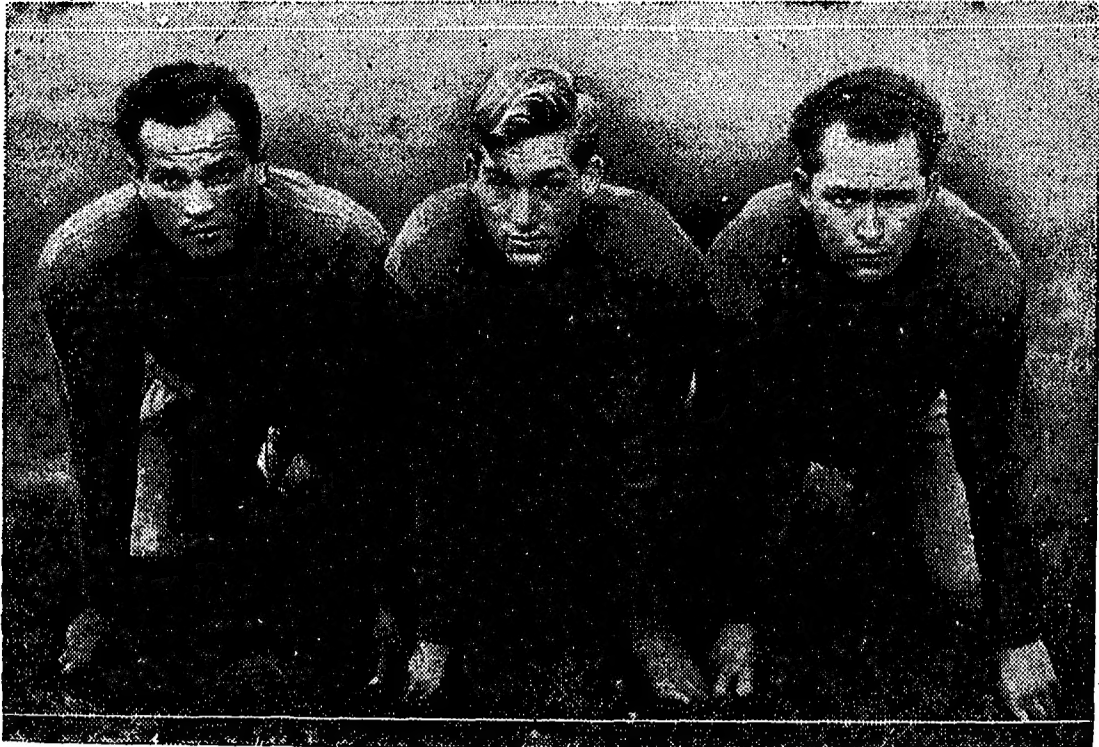

By JANE VINCENT

If you see a parade of freshies marching toward the park armed with big drawing-board shields and long drawing-pencil swords, don't be alarmed, they are only going to battle with the Kountze regiment of trees. Should you encounter a very pretty titian-haired damsel with a twinkle in her eye you will know it's Evelyn, who is exceedingly pleased over the new class in oil painting.

And now we wish to warn you to think nothing of it, if you come in contact with small squares of colored paper entangled with strands of hair; they are merely the by-products of the design class who are trying to concoct their brightness and saturation charts.

The most important warning remains to the last. Herschel Elarth is the new assistant to Doctor Koch and as he is extremely handsome, the art department is very jealous of him, so, take warning or take part.

Omaha Wallops Kansans, 29-0

Omaha kept her goal line undefiled again Friday night by trampling Ottawa underfoot and defeating them decisively, 29 to 0. Pearey was the heavy scorer as usual, and carried the ball over the Kansans' goal line twice. Intercepting a pass, Pearey ran 57 yards and scored. Again, Pearey passed to Boldenow for thirty-three yards and Boldenow took it over. Omaha scored early and kept right on scoring. The game was never out of control of the Cards, and the outcome was a foregone conclusion after the first touchdown in the first quarter.

Card Manager Resigns Position

De Loss Thompson, '32, has resigned his position as graduate manager of the Cardinals. "Dee" became student manager of the team in 1928 and continued as manager and trainer following his graduation from the University's college of business administration. Thompson is a former president of Theta Phi Delta fraternity.

Last year "Dee" coached the freshman basketball team and assisted Hartman in the men's physical education classes.

Kelley Bolte and Billy Kulper succeed Thompson as student managers of the varsity.
